

Please do not make any changes to the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law! It's not broken don't fix it. These banks any other private interest groups can contact their customers some other way and find out if they wish to be contacted by phone at home.